Speaker: Marianne Tavares, RSCJ

Marianne graduated from Maryknoll Convent School in 1972, completed secretarial studies at the Hong Kong Polytechnic and worked for Jardine Matheson & Co. She left Hong Kong in 1977 to take up nursing training in London and worked as a registered nurse in the U.K. for 30 years. Marianne joined the Society of the Sacred Heart in 1985, an international religious order founded by St. Madeleine Sophie Barat in France. While not a specialist in the care of the elderly, Marianne has worked in elder care as a nurse in the U.K. and is now learning to negotiate the Ontario health system as her parents' primary caregiver. In Marianne's experience, the single most important thing in the care of elderly parents is being their advocate. She is happy to share her experience and what knowledge she has in this area of care with Maryknoll alumni.
